

INVESTIGATION OF SENATOR BAILEY

Charges, Involving Violation of Federal Statute, Made By Cooke.

AUSTIN, TEX., January 24.—The special committee appointed by the two branches of the State Legislature to investigate charges preferred against United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey met in joint session to-day. The session was, for the greater part, executive. While the proceedings were not made public, it is believed that the additional charges preferred on yesterday by Representative Cooke, wherein it is charged that Senator Bailey used his official position to manipulate land deals in Indian Territory to his private gain, were considered. Because of the grave character of the charges, involving a possible violation of Federal statute, the committee has decided to limit the range of the inquiry until more definite information can be secured.

The charges further declare that Senator Bailey procured a loan from Judge J. M. Lindsay, of Galveston, Texas, in 1902, while procuring from Congress right of way through Indian Territory for the Galveston, McAllister and St. Louis Railway Company. Senator Bailey was at that time a Representative in Congress.

The committee, after a lengthy debate to-day decided that Senator Bailey would not be required to appear before the committee. More all the evidence was submitted, inasmuch as he was on the defensive. With this understanding the committee will proceed to examine witnesses.

Sensor Bailey has announced that the will not leave Austin until after the investigation is concluded.

ceipts were as much as those of Atlanta, Savannah, and Norfolk combined. It paid a fine tribute to the retail merchants of the city and country districts, and seemed to have a great liking for the latter.

Mayor McCarthy followed and got a fine reception. He responded to the toast, "The Value of the Retail Merchant in the Building of a City," and his remarks fairly bristled with humor.

"The retail merchant is the eye, the ears and the hands of the great commerce of the world," said the Mayor, "and it is his part after all to make all the sales of goods in the world. He brings about the contact between the producer and the consumer."

In speaking of Richmond, the Mayor said: "This is my own, my native land, and I am proud to be a citizen of it. It is somewhat enlarged by an expansion of our corporate limits. It brings about the contact between the producer and the consumer."

"The retail merchant is the poor man's banker. If I should walk into a retail store and ask for $15 or $20 credit I would probably get it, but if I should walk into a bank and ask for a loan, the reply would be, 'Certainly you can get it, if you have an endorser.' They are about the only people who will make me a loan without an endorser."

"The retail merchant is wholly indispensable to a city. What would you do for example, with a hoghead of sugar, or a barrel of whiskey, or a whole suit of clothes at one time, if you please."

"I don't expect Berry to credit me for a whole suit of clothes now. It is better for me to get a pair of pants one time, and a coat at another, and so on, so as to keep down my bill. Captain Lamb said a thing which struck me very forcibly. He declared that to be a successful retail merchant one must have the characteristics of certain gentlemen; and who did he name? Moses, Jacob, and Solomon—every single one a Hebrew."

"You are right, if you will, but I tell you that the descendants of these gentlemen in all the ages of the world have been the greatest retail merchants that ever stood behind a counter."

Mr. Norman H. Johnston, of Raleigh, N. C., president of the association, responded to "The Retail Merchant," and his effort was a most captivating one. He declared amid applause that Richmond had the most representative retail merchants' association in the South, and second only to the advantages of organization.

SAILOR IS RESCUED WHEN ABOUT TO SINK

CHARLESTON, S. C., January 24.—While the Plover, a sailboat, was out on the water, the vessel collided with the Clyde steamship Comanche, in a dense fog while off Diamond Shoals Lightship, was brought into port to-day by the schooner Gracie D. Buchanan, Captain Harrington. Plover was found struggling in the water, perfectly mad and about to give up when taken on board the schooner. It was bitterly cold, but the sailor, who is a powerful man, had withstood the cold and the strain of swimming in the ocean for over an hour.

KILLED SWEETHEART COMMITTED SUICIDE

Boy of Seventeen Shoots Girl of Sixteen for Love.

NEW YORK, January 24.—Sarah Kling, aged eighteen, of Orchard Street, was shot and instantly killed to-day by her cousin, Mayer Schwartz, aged seventeen, at his home at No. 103 Broome Street. Schwartz then shot and instantly killed himself. It is believed the boy and girl entered into a pact to die together because their parents objected to their fondness for each other. Three notes were found, all signed by the boy. One of them read as follows:

"My father did not allow me to go to her. Her mother did not want her to go to me, and therefore we both go together."

HOT ENGAGEMENT WITH INDIANS

Yaquis and Mexican Troops Wage War in the Mountains. Many Killed.

EL PASO, TEX., January 24.—Reports were received to-night of a desperate fight between Yaqui Indians and Mexican troops yesterday in the mountainous region southeast of Guaymas, Sonora, in the section on which is the station of Lencho, which was destroyed by the Yaquis in December. The Mexican troops have been hunting the Yaquis since the Lencho incident, and have had frequent skirmishes with them, but until yesterday were unable to force an engagement with any considerable force. In this fight twenty Mexicans were killed and a number wounded. The Yaquis were defeated with considerable loss, but they took both their dead and wounded with them when retreating. It is not known how many were killed.

MRS. HOLMAN IN N. Y. READY TO TESTIFY

Mother of Mrs. Harry Thaw Is in Seclusion, Awaiting Call From Mr. Jerome.

PITTSBURGH, PA., January 24.—Announcement was made here to-day that Mrs. Evelyn Holman, mother of Mrs. Harry Thaw, has been in New York for several days in seclusion, subject to the call of District Attorney Jerome in the Thaw murder case, and will be produced at any moment the District Attorney may need her.

Mrs. Holman left Pittsburgh on the 10 o'clock Pennsylvania train on last Saturday night, it having been arranged that J. C. Hartnett should meet her on her arrival in Jersey City and that she should be taken to a quiet place and kept under cover until it might be necessary for her to appear as a witness. On the same train with Mrs. Holman was her son, Howard Nesbit.

Not only has Mrs. Holman gone to New York, but arrangements were completed last Saturday morning from the floor of the Pittsburgh Stock Exchange for her to go. C. J. Holman, her husband, who is a member of the Stock Exchange, on Saturday morning received the last message regarding what was wanted of his wife in New York, and stepped to the telephone from the floor of the Stock Exchange and was overheard to call his wife up at her home in Brookline.

"You will leave for the East to-night. Mr. Hartnett will meet you at Jersey City in the morning," was the message, and Mrs. Holman left quietly, with her son, that evening.

While it is admitted by close friends of the woman here that she may not be called as a witness, all assert that if she is called she will likely produce the greatest sensation since the shooting of Mr. White.

William Thompson, a negro, head coachman, and Bruce Oskan, assistant gardener in the residence of Mrs. William Thaw here, have left for New York, where they will be called as witnesses for the defense.

Pittsburgh is excited over the Thaw murder trial. Newspaper offices and news agencies were besieged all day, hundreds of persons waiting to know the latest move in the famous case. Crowds filled the streets in front of the newspaper offices, while on the floor of the Stock Exchange bulletins were received from New York and read every few minutes.

GET THREE JURORS FOR THAW TRIAL

the lines of examination he pursued yesterday. His questions seemed to be directed to the purpose of securing a jury which would not be swayed by sentiment or emotion; which would be guided by the law of the State, as interpreted by the presiding justice, to the exclusion of any so-called higher or unwritten law.

Thaw seemed to take little interest in the examination of the witnesses. When the district attorney asked a witness if he was acquainted in Pittsburgh or with Truxton Beale or Thomas McCaleb, Thaw bent forward to catch the answers, after which he settled back in his seat. His eyes sought those of the witnesses only now and then, but most of the time his gaze was directed at the table before him.

When Mr. Hartnett, of his counsel, took up the examination, Thaw appeared more animated and whispered several times to the attorneys nearest him. These were Delphin Delmas, on his right, and A. R. Peabody, on the left.

Receiving Wife's Smiles. During the luncheon recess there was a conference between Thaw and his counsel in the prisoner's room. By special permission of the court the prisoner's wife, Mrs. Thaw, Carnegie, and his brothers were permitted to visit him at the same time.

When Thaw came in after his recess his eyes were all for his wife. He stopped as he passed her and bowed very low to her. The young wife leaned forward in her seat, smiling radiantly. There was much restlessness in the courtroom, and it seemed as though the strain of the extended examinations, which contained so many repetitions, was beginning to tire the spectators. This was not true, however, of Mrs. Evelyn Thaw, who followed Mr. Jerome's questioning of witnesses with an eager interest.

MONEY SUBSCRIBED TO VETERANS' FUND

Yesterday's contributions to the fund being raised by the Confederate veterans in order to defray the expenses incident to the reunion of the Grand Camp, C. V., which begins May 30th, swelled the amounts in sight or already in hand to nearly $7,000. They were as follows:

L. W. Wise	$ 50
Thomas F. Jeffries	100
Miss Mary Johnston	50
	$ 200
Previously reported	6,800
	$6,800

It should not be inferred from the foregoing that the old soldiers have any easy road to travel. A vast deal of hard work still awaits the reunion canvassing committees. In all they will need about $45,000 for the meeting of the Grand Camp and monument unveilings, and even if the city appropriates $20,000 for the purposes mentioned, the veterans must somehow get the rest of the money.

expressionless, but he whispered occasionally with his lawyer.

Reported to Entire World.

The Thaw case is being reported to the ends of the civilized world. The eminence of the victim, the wealth of the prisoner, the dramatic circumstances of the crime and the light it sheds, not only on Broadway life, but on the doings of the fast set in every capital, have caused special arrangements to be made for the press.

From the centre of the Criminal Court's building two great cables came down to a table where a corps of telegraphers is installed. Some of the wires run straight to newspaper offices in the city; others connect with newspapers in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Arrangements have been made by which the stories written in court may be placed on a wire connected with the Atlantic cable, so that they may be flashed without a moment's delay to London. The telephone has also been used, and one Pittsburgh newspaper has engaged a direct wire.

In the courtroom two long tables have been set apart for the reporters of the afternoon papers. The reporters for morning newspapers are accommodated in the enclosure above the bar to the left of the judge. Then along the side of the courtroom is another batch of special writers and artists.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., January 24.—The trial of F. J. O'Hara, in the United States Court here, on the charge of holding men in peonage, ended to-day with a verdict of not guilty. The government made every effort to secure a conviction in this case sending Assistant Attorney-General Charles W. Russell here from Washington to help in the prosecution. There are four other indictments against O'Hara yet to be tried, besides cases against John P. Lynch, Charles Davis, J. E. Geiter, F. M. Harp, Joseph Clayton and C. F. Burritt.

Progress in Kansas.

A Kansas City man has just succeeded in getting a patent on an electric motor, fastened on a cow's back, the electricity being generated by a dynamo attached to her tail. It strains the milk and hangs up the pail and the strainer. A small photograph accompanies the outfit and yells "So!" when the cow moves. If she kicks, a hinged arm catches the milk-stool and jams her over the back.—Oswatimie (Kan.) Globe.

A Safe Perch.

At the crowded downtown corner the frightened pedestrians were scurrying out of the way of street cars, automobiles, delivery wagons, and policemen on horseback.

"Go!" exclaimed the window-washer, looking down on them from his perch on the narrow ledge of a fifteen-story window. "I'm glad I ain't in that crowd!"—Chicago Tribune.

BLAKELY WINS 100-MILE RACE

Blakely Also Annexes the Ten-Mile Event in Same Car.

ORMOND-DAYTONA BEACH, FLA., January 24.—In the fifth international automobile tournament here to-day the 100-mile event for the Minneapolis Cup was won by E. B. Blakely, driving a 70-horse power gasoline car, in 1 hour 26 minutes 10 seconds. Blakely, though eleven minutes behind Earl's record last year, drove a pretty race, distancing every competitor. Hutton, in an English gasoline car, finished second 36 minutes behind the winner.

The 10-mile handicap, open to cars of all classes and power, was won by Blakely, in the same car in which he drove to victory in the 100-mile event. Blakely had a 45-second handicap, and covered the distance in 8 minutes 44 seconds, the fastest time in the event. Rogers, in the scratch car, a 2-horse power steamer, finished fifth, making the ten miles in 8 minutes 10 1/2 seconds.

The five-mile event for touring cars, listed between $1,500 and $3,000, was won by Kull, in a 35-horse power gasoline car, in 5 minutes, 22 1/2 seconds.

An effort was made by Marriott, in the steam racer in which he last year made the mile in 28 1/2 seconds, to lower that record. The attempt failed, his time to-day being 31 1/2 seconds.

Other mile trials were run, principally to determine handicaps in events yet to come, but no unusual time was made save that of P. E. Stanley, who drove a fully-equipped touring car a mile in 45 2-5. All events will be concluded to-morrow if possible, and the tournament ended.
